POULTRY SHOW TO BE HERE

ONE OF THE GREATEST POULTRY SHOWS IN THE UNITED STATES IF NOT IN THE WORLD TO BE HELD IN THIS CITY DURING DECEMBER—WILL BE CHASITATE
LITTLE EX-PENSE.

President and Two Members Here Looking at the Field With W.
H. Turner, of This City, Who Is Also a Member of the Board Which is Appointed by Gov-nor Folk.

The first State poultry show of the Missouri State Poultry Association, under direction of the board appointed by Governor Folk, will be held in this city, December 9. The location was decided on at a meeting of the board Monday, at the Laclede Hotel.

Afternoon, on the five o'clock Wahash, Pres. R. P. Bridgeman, of Oregon, Mo., J. A. Maxwell, of Fayette and A. B. Drescher, of Hannibal, arrived here to be the guests of W. H.
Turner, another member of the board who resides in this city. These gentlemen will go over the local field and decide a place to hold what promises to be the largest Poultry show in the United States if not in the world.

For the last fifteen years the show has been held at various points over the State under the auspices of a private association, but last winter the General Assembly of Jefferson City passed an act making the Association a State organization and appropriating $2,000 annually for its support.

This is double the amount appropriated by Kansas and Nebraska for their State poultry shows.

J. A. Heister, of Huntville was appointed superintendent by the board, and preparations made for a possible entry of 3,000 birds. From three dollars the first prize for a Pen has been raised to ten dollars and the single entry first prizes have been made five dollars in place of the former one dollar and a half. These are higher prizes than are offered at another show in this country.

The show will probably be held in the Grand Opera house and the entire Business Men's Association who have guaranteed it expense, which will not exceed $40,000, will fall upon the city.
The people that attend from a distance vary from 500 to 1,000.

The judges selected are: Charles H.
Rhodes, Topeka, Kas.; W. P. Russell, Ottumwa, Ia.; and C. A. Emery, Carthage, Mo.

The towns which bid for the show were Mexico, Springfield, Aurora, Sedalia, Chillicothe, Hannibal, Moberly and Kansas City.

TO HOLD POULTRY INSTITUTES Members of the board said yesterday they expected to inaugurate an innovation by sending expert demonstrators throughout the State to hold poultry institutions. A part of the State appropriation, it was said, will be devoted to this work.

Members of the board, organized at Jefferson City July 1, present at yesterday's meeting were: President R. P.
Bridgeman, Oregon; Vice President C.
A. Morton, St. Louis; Secretary T. C.
Quisenberry, Slater; Treasurer W. J.
Dulaney, Slater; W. H. Turner, Mexico; J. A. Maxwell, Fayette; S. J.
Tetley, Farmington; A. B. Drescher, Hannibal.

Governor Folk was made ex officio member of the board.

Mrs. Mary N. Mosely Dead.
Mrs. Mary N. Mosely died early Tuesday morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. John W. Beatty on East Jackson street. The funeral services were held at the residence of John W.
Beatty at three o'clock Tuesday and the remains will be taken to Troy for burial Wednesday morning. Rev.
Henderson conducted the services.

Modern Woodmen of America Reunited.
The Modern Woodmen social, last evening, assisted by the Royal neighbors, and held in Fraternal Hall, was one of the delightful local entertainments of the past week. Over 400 guests were present and a most delightful evening was spent.

Judge D. A. Murphy presided while the following programme was presented: Duett, Misses Kennan; solo, Miss Swartwood; Address Judge Bots; Recitation, Miss Sedbury; speech, E. A.
Shannon; song by quartette; music by the orchestra, speech by F. R. Jesse; song by quartette; music by the orchestra.

After the programme lovely refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake and lemonade, were served and the cakes that were left over were auctioned off and the proceeds donated to the Royal neighbors.

J. A. Brown presented the M. W. A. lodge with a beautifully decorated cake that came from the artistic touch of Adolph Eger, his popular baker.

Funeral of Mrs. Montague.
The remains of Mrs. Jay Montague who died in Fort Worth, Texas Friday evening, were brought to this city Sunday afternoon, and were taken to the home of John N. Brown where the funeral was held Monday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. A. A.
Wallace of the Presbyterian Church.

The wife and son, Mrs. E. R.
Locke sang a very beautiful duet, "Nearer My God to Thee."

The pallbearers were: Messrs.
Russell Emmons, Dan H. Cauborn, Ross Cauborn, Clarence A. Barnes, T. H. Williams, and Dr. A. C. White.

E. B. Williams will leave this week for San Diego, California, where he has a good position. Mr. Williams expects to locate permanently in that city. His wife and son, Reed, will leave for their new home about the first of September.

The Williams family have the best wishes of their many friends in this city.

Mrs. J. M. Hudson went to Troy, Tuesday afternoon where she will attend the funeral of Mrs. Mosely, who died here Tuesday morning.

RUFUS JACKSON HURT

Falls And Breaks Leg Above Knee—County Assessor And One of Ausdrain's Most Popular Men.

Rufus Jackson, of this city, met with a serious accident, Monday evening while in the country, a short distance from town, at the home of Albert Worham. Mr. Jackson has one artificial limb and it seems that in some way this slipped and throw his weight on his other leg which gave way. Mr. Jackson losing his balance and falling on it.

It was discovered that his leg was snapped above the knee and very close to the hip. The break was set as soon as possible and Mr. Jackson is resting very easily at his home in southwest Mexico.

Mr. Jackson is county assessor of Auburn county, and a prominent member of the Eagles. He is one of the most popular men in this county, and has hosts and hosts of friends who join the Ledger in wishing him a speedy recovery from his painful injury.

What P. W. Harding Thinks of the Chicken Ordinance.
P. W. Harding, formerly of this city, now assistant pastor of the Christian Church in Columbus, Ind., writes the Ledger as follows:

COLUMBUS, IND., July 19. — Dear Bob: I have just finished reading the weekly Ledger which I have read with great pleasure every week since I left home. I am gratified to know that the Ledger is still pulling for reform, and everything that will make Mexico a first-class city. I trust you will hit your tow line to the anti-chicken ordinance, and never let up until it becomes a law. During my two and a half months' stay in Columbus I have never seen a chicken in the street. I certainly hope the same may be truthfully said of Mexico when I come back.

In the whole history of congress, covering a period of 113 years, there are only two of its members who have a record of more than forty years of and William B. Allison of Iowa. Senator Allison's career is still in progress.

About 20,000 people live in the crater of an extinct volcano in Japan. They dwell contentedly in this pit-like town surrounded by a vertical wall eighty feet high, rarely making a journey into the outer world, and practically forming a little community by themselves.

There is a woman cashier in a bank at Joplin, Mo., who handles on an average of $25,000 every Saturday, that being the miners' pay day. There are four other women holding posts of responsibility in this same bank, and the institution is often referred to as the "woman's bank."

The oldest building in England that has been uninterruptedly used for church purposes is St. Martin's cathedral at Canterbury. The building was originally erected for a church, and has been regularly used as a place for religious gatherings for more than 1,500 years.

underground. The rooms must be large enough to hold at least twenty-four people, and must be provided aid material, inhalation apparatus and compressed oxygen in cylinders sufficient to last at least three days.

The his does not always mean disgust and reprobaton. In Japan always it means delight. A Japanese in greeting one hisses. In west Africa the his denotes astonishment. In the New Hebrides his his before any thing beautiful. The Rasutus hiss in sign of cordial agreement. Among the Kabyles of northern Africa the hiss denotes satisfaction.

According to the most conservative estimates, there are at least 12,000,000 people in America who are either German or of German extraction. We have more than 5,000,000 citizens who were actually born in the fatherland.
They are diffused through every portion of the country, but New York has the largest German colony in the world. After that the greatest number is found in Pennsylvania.

Three remarkable cases of leprosy have occurred in Serbia within a short period. One man, who had stated that King Peter did not seem "fit for much" was sentenced to seven years' imprisonment; another, who asserted that the king would always be looked on as a stranger, was given four years, and a third, who said that his majesty was of less value than his surroundings, was sent to prison for four years.

Traveling Man Who Was Lost Now Remembers Seeing to Himself in Colorado Springs and Pike's Peak—May Recover Eye Sight Caused by Clot on the Brain.

Robert Harris the traveling salesman of Mexico, who was lost for almost a week returned from Columbia yesterday where he was taken immediately after he got home. Mrs. Harris and Mr. Ed Harris, a brother, came with him.

Mr. Harris has completely recovered his senses, but has practically lost sight of his left eye. His physician says that it is caused by a blood vessel bursting from the head which overcame him. Mr. Harris can distinguish light from darkness a little and the physicians hope of the full recovery of his eyesight in his injured eye.

Mr. Harris is able now to remember coming to himself twice while he was away, once in Colorado Springs and once on Pike's Peak. Both times he went to a telephone office to wire home, as soon as he found where he was, but both times he only remembers getting into line to await his turn.

The Ledger hopes that Mr. Harris will entirely recover his health and also his power of eyesight.

GOOD SAMARITAN IS REWARDED

MRS. A. L. KRAUSE, OF ALASKA, AND AT PRESENT VISITING
THOUSAND DOLLARS
BY MAN SHE ONCE NURSED BACK TO LIFE IN THE FAR NORTH.

Sory of the Frozen Gold Fields of Alaska That Again Places Before the Public the Prominent Woman Mine Owner of the Yukon and Snake River.

Mrs. A. L. Krause, of Nome, Alaska, who has been visiting in this city for some time, was notified, this week by Judge Gunnison U. S. Consul at Dawson City, Alaska, that she had been left $5,000.00 in the will of Lewis Titus, who she once nursed to life when stricken in that far northern clime.

Mrs. Krause, who is one of the most prominent woman mine owners in Alaska, is well known to the readers of this paper, as she has been in this city on various visits for several months. Lewis Titus, the dead man who remembered her in his will, died recently at the age of thirty-eight years, at Dawson City. During his stay in Alaska he had accumulated great wealth and of this money $5,000.00 was given to Mrs. Krause because she had befriended him when ill and without a nurse.

Mrs. Krause is a woman of Christian character and traits and her act, when she went to nurse this man far from home and loved ones, was purely at the instigation of sympathy and good-given promptings.

The announcement that she had been remembered in a will was a great surprise to her, as the incident was one of the many that crowded her life while roughing it there where life, at best, was full of startling adventures for a woman. Mrs. Krause will shortly learn whether it will be necessary for her to go to Dawson City to get this money or not. If she goes it will be probably to remain some time to watch the development of her mining claims on the Yukon and Snake Rivers.
